fact that a check upon interpretation was shown to be so necessary, as well as that it was at hand to be exercised. It seems very desirable that, so soon as ample arrangements can be made, Mr Rozario should be enabled to retire upon his well-earned laurels. But the whole question of the interpretation is forced upon public attention by the occurrence of a circumstance like that recorded; and it may seem strange that the reform in this department has not been more thoroughly prosecuted. There can be no doubt whatever that a radical reconstruction in this branch of the service was once a fond desire of H. E. the Governor; but by some unaccountable means it has got smothered Daylight .- Miten Bishi Mail leaves for up and hid by other schemes, and (if we except the cheering glimpse of manifest advancement observable in Mr Ball's appointment) the better days we had hoped for are as far off as ever. Now that the cadet system has again, been applied to Hongkong, and one of the "boys" is under a course of instruction, it is to be 4 p.m. - Normanby leaves for Singapore, desired that some at least of his energies may be directed towards the interpretation department-as a check upon those natives to whom the management of interpretation appears now to be chiefly left, especially in the inferior Courts. We have more than once spoken strongly upon the mistaken policy involved in the misdirection of the services of the official sinologue upon whom was to fall the duty of remodelling and supervising the Interpretation Department; and it may be in the power of many to recall the objections taken by Unofficial Council-Members to the vote for a foreign interpreter to attend upon the Head of the Executive. No one who has the true interests of the Colony, the interests of Justice, and the welfare of the Chinese at heart would begrudge an adequate salary to an efficient Interpreter General But it is the subject of general regret Noon. - French Mail leaves for Ports of that the great abilities of the Acting Chinese Secretary have not as vet been

> Ir seems now to be pretty well established that Colonel Gordon not only goes North with a desire to strengthen the Peace Party at Peking, but that all hopes of his taking service with China are at an end. This is Important, and will doubtless have considerable effect with those of the leading officials who are disposed to take a reasonable view of the situation. Li Hung Chang who is presumably the strongest friend of peace, is certain to place great faith in the advice tendered by a man like Gordon, coming from his old comrade, as the advice must now do, in as impartial a spirit as it is conceivable it could be. Indeed, it is more than probable that in view of the possibility that Li has a very difficult and delicate rôle to play in opposing hostilities with Russin, the prest Viceroy of Chihli has induced Gordon to visit him with the especial object of influencing the somewhat rabid War Party. The conqueror of Kashgar, Tso Tsung Tang, is doubtless burning with the desire to maintain or rather to recover the advantages which took years and much treasure to gain. But the real question of peace or war will be settled at Peking; and so far as our information at present extends, the conviction is beginning to force itself forward that peace will be the decision arrived at. What part Sir Thomas Wade and Colonel Gordon may actually take in the settlement of that momentous question may never become known; but unless something in the complicated machinery of Court politics in Peking arises to thwart the wishes of those who most intelligently study the welfare of the Empire, a peaceful solution of the present difficulties may be with some confidence looked for. The reports of victories gained by the Chiuese on the Kashgar frontier are almost certain to be exaggerations, awing their origin partly to the known views of Tso Tsung Tang and partly to the excited state of feeling regarding the strained relations of the two States. Considerable caution will be necessary in forming any conclusions as to telegrams now heing received, as in any case it is doubtful whether China will improve her position by aggressive movements of any kind his usual mark of activity.

OLD residents will regret to hear of the death by violence of Senhor José D'Aguilar, in his own house in Madrid, in the latter end of May last. The Senhor, it is supposed, was enjoying his usual ofternoon sicata, when, about 3 o'clock, some one entered the house by means of false keys with intent to commit a robbery. A souffle ensued, ending in a foul murder. After some considerable trouble the desperado was secured by the police, and we may no doubt soon hear of his having been brought to trial before the Spanish Courts of Justice. Sr. José D'Aguilar served as Spanish Consul at Amoy, so long back as 1851, and Hongkong in 1856, while in 1858 he held the post of Consul General at Macao. He returned to his native land twelve years ago, in 1868. The Senhor was widely noted for his liberal charities, and his death will be lamented by many who were the recipients. of substantial relief at his hands in days gone by, and, we believe, up to the day of his death. Another most melanchely circumstance connected with the Senhor's untimely end is, that, when news of his death was conveyed to Senhor Canete, another and older Consul General at Maoso, and the bosom friend of D'Aguilar, he sickened at the thought of the brutal murder, and as the shock was too great for his feelings, he succumbed in the course of a few days, out of sheer grief and broken-heartedness occasioned by his friend's death.

THE OPIUM TRADE. (London and China Express, June 4.

Last week the Friends' "yearly meeting "devoted a sitting to the cousideration of the Opium Question. There was a full attendance of members. including Justice Sir Edward Fry, M. Joseph W. Pease, M.P., Mr J. B. Firth M.P., and Mr G. Palmer, M.P. In a very lucid address Sir Edward Fra explained the history and present relations of the subject, dwelling mainly upon its moral aspects as affecting the condition of so many millions of the human race, and above all, as constitut ing the chief and most powerful obstacle to the introduction of Christianity among the Chinese. As illustrating this mis chief, the words of Prince Kung, the Chinese Prime Minister, were quoted "Take away from us your opium and your missionaries." It was stated that the demoralising effects of the habitua use of opium are of the most serious nature. Sir Thomas Wade, Ambassador of Great Britain to China, has declared that this habit is more degrading and more hopeless of cure than even inveterate gin drinking. The effects on a large shown to be most deplorable. Even the economical effects are disastrous, as causing, annually, the withdrawal hundreds of millions of ounces of silver drug. Sir E. Fry admitted that the description. The problem is no easy one to solve. Nevertheless it has this sim plicity of basis, that our Government in India is directly responsible for the truffic, inasmuch as there is a Govern ment monopoly of opium production. is actually grown and sold by the Bri tish Government. Hence there is direct national responsibility for evil attaching to this State action, which does not similarly attach to objectionable matters which may be indirectly licensed or regulated by Government.

Mr George Gillet advised that endeav

ours be made to invite the co-operation of the other Christian Churches in the formation of a healthy and well-informed public opinion on the terrible evils of the opium trade, which is a comparatively little understood question .-- Mr Joseph W. Pease. M. P., admitted the great difficulty and istricacy of the subject, and that a small society such as that of will probably leave to-day, for Rio de the Friends could do but little. Never-Janeiro, via Yokohama, San Francisco, vertheless it was their duty to do what they could, and he therefore suggest d a memorial and deputation on the subject to the Prime Minister and Lord Hartington. Those sta men must, of course, be influenced by the exceedingly great and practical difficulty of the problem. But at the same time it would be for those gentlemen, as Christians, to consider their own and the nation's responsibility in having any direct participation in upholding so gigantic an evil. They may also consider whether even the vast pecuniary interests involved sian, Minin, asia, and Diigit; Brazilian, are of greater importance than the adoption, at any price, of a course of action on which the Divine blessing can be looked for rather than adherence to an apparently profitable arrangement as to the present, but weighted withal with the prave secompaniment of its condemn. There is not a mother from Ghuzni to Dakka who does not sing her children to sleep, with the promise of death to the infidal alien You do not know b'e extent to which you are detested ! You think that poputer opinion can be awayed by a puppet. You do not understand the construction of the Afghan monarchy.

Afghanistan, my Lord, is a confederation of chiefs and peoples who accept the ablest representative of the Royal House to be their ruler; when hat House cannot supply a popular repre sentative, they turn to another. The people of Afghanistan will not permit he next Amir to render himself independent of the voice of the nation by the aid of Russian gold or of British cannon. You are wrong if you suppose that Abdul Rahman will be able or willing to carry on the stipulations of the Gandamak Treaty. You are wrong if you expect to force upon the Afghan people a foreign policy opposed to their traditions, discountenanced by their religion, and destined to be sooner or later destructive of their independence. You are wrong if you imagine that at your dictation the Afghan nation will elect a Ruler, who comes to them neither by the power of his sword nor with the prestige of a Royal inheritance, unless indeed they do so as a temporary concession to obtain the withdrawal of your armies. One of three things will happen: Either my cousin will refuse your proffered alliance, and in so doing, adopt the course best calculated to enable him to supplant me in the affections of my people; or he will proportion of the Chinese population are come to you intending to be false; or will come to you intending to be true. If he is false to you, you will have deserved his infidelity for trying to buy him from his allegiance to his benefactors. from China for a worse than useless If he is true to you, he will still have acted the part of a traitor, and your pecuniary aspects of the question as to departue from the country will be the its connection with the Indian revenue signal for a revolution. He will learn are of the most difficult and complex again what experience has taught before, Rome, it is but one step from the Capital to the Tarpeian rock.

> Pause, then, my Lord, before you allow yourself to be committed to a course of irrevocable folly and injustice. The longer a nation strays from the path of rectitude, the harder it is to return. You need have no apprehension that my wrongs will make me less solicitous of British countenance. My grandfather also suffered and was ever a friend of England, You know how little cause I have to defend my conduct in the past, and experience will have taught you not to ask from the Ruler of Afghanistan impossibilities in the future. Your troops have reduced my country to snarchy. Order cannot be restored till they are withdrawn. Release me, then, Recall your armies, and let us leave the issue with God.

(d) No Parcel Post.

Local Delivery. 1. All correspondence posted before 5 p.m. on any week day for addresses in Victoria will be delivered the same day, and generally within two hours, unless the delivery should be retarded by the Contract

2. Invitations, do., can generally be delivered within Victoria at the private houses of the addressess rather than at places of business, if a wish to that effect essed by the sender, otherwise all correspondence is invariably delivered at the nearest place of business.

Hongkong, Bangkok, or the Ports of China through a Bank, and may afterwards be and Japan, may deliver them to the Post specially crossed to any Bank. Office unstamped, the postage being then charged to the senders account. Each batch must consist of at least ten.

4. Boxholders may also send Patterns to the same places in the same way, velopes containing Patterns may be wholly of closed if the nature of the contents be first exhibited as stated to the Postmaster General, as he may consider necessary, and spproved by him. Printed Ofreulars may be inserted in such Pattern Packers.

Parcets. The public is reminded that there is no such thing as Parcel Post to Europe, &c. Much trouble and dissopointment are caused by persistent attempts to send small valuable wifes through the Post, Fans, Curios Srticles of Dress, Fancy Work, and similar presents are con-tinually being refused, the senders having often spent more in Postage than would have paid the freight by steamer. No refund can be made on such parcels of the value of Stamps obliterated before the nature of the contents was discovered.

Local Parcel Post. 1. Small Parcels may be sent by Post between any of the Post Offices in China or Japan, as well as to Macso, Pakhoi, Singapore, Penang, and Malacca. the Rates are given in cents, and are, for They must not exceed the following dimen-Letters, per half ounce, for Books and sions, 2 feet long, 1 foot broad, 1 foot deep, nor weigh more than 5lbs. The postage Newspapers over four ounces in weight will be 20 cents per ib., which will include are charged as double, treble, &c., as the Registration. The parcels may be wholly case may be, but such papers of packets or closed if they bear this apecial enderse-papers may be sent at Book Rate. Two ment, PARCEL, CONTAINING NO LETTER, but Newspapers must not be folded together as any parcel may be opened by direction of

2. The following cannot be transmitted Parcels insufficiently packed or protected, or liable to be crushed (as bandboxes, rent may be paid either as Newspapers or &co.) Glass, Liquids, Explosive substances, Books.

Matches, Indigo, Dyestuffs, Ice, Meat, Commercial Papers signify such papers Fish, Game, Fruit, Vegetables, or whatever is dangerous to the Mails, or likely to become offensive or injurious in transit.

8. Parcels will as a general rule be forwarded by Private Ship, not by Contract Mail Packet. The Post Office reserves the right of selecting the opportunity for transmission, and of delaying delivery in case the number of parcels is such as to retard other correspondence. No responsibility is accepted with regard to any parcel, but the system of Registration will secure the senders against any but a very remote probability of loss.

4. The public are cautioned not to confound these facilities with a Parcel Post to Europe, &c., which does not exist.

Most countries to which Hongkong forwards Correspondence having joined the General Postal Union or being probable about to do so, it is necessary that the following rules be strictly observed.

1. No Letter or Packet, whether to be registered or unregistered, can be received for Postage if it contains gold or silver money, jewels, precious articles, or anything that,

2. This Regulation prohibits the sending of Patterns of dutiable articles, unless the quantity sent be so small as to make the sample of no value. 3. The limits of weight allowed are as follows :---Books and Papers—to British Offic s, 5 lbs.; to the Continent, &c., 4 lbs. Patterns-to British Offices, 5 lbs. if without intrinsic value; to the Continent, &c., 8 oz.

Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Letter. The Post Office is not legally responsible for the safe delivery of Registered correspondence, but henceforth it will be prepared to make good the contents of such correspondence lost while passing through the Post, to the extent of $10, in certain cases, provided :-

1. That the sender duly observed all the conditions of Registration require. 2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong envelope.

3. That application was made to the Postmaster General of Hongkong immediately the loss was discovered, the envelope being invariably forwarded with such application unless it also is lost. 4. That the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss occurred whilst the correspondence was in the custody of the British Postal administration in China, that it was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender, by destruction by fire, or shipwreck, nor by the disho esty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Hongkong Post Office.

5. No compensation can be paid for mere damage to fragile articles such as portraits, watches, handsomely bound books, &c. which reach their destination, although in a broken or deteriorated condition.

Money Order Regulations

1 .-- Money Orders are exchanged with the United Kingdom, New South Wales. Queensland, South Australia and Port Darwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also issues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa. 2.—Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent. for cashing them. 8.—Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way. An application for an order* is filled up, and is enclosed with a stamped, directed, and unsealed envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by fin copportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails.

4.—No order must exceed £10, or $50 or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the dayf and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived The commission is as follows :--

Orders on the United Kingdom. Up to £2...... 18 cents. ,, £5...... 86 L, -, £7.......... 54 11 , £10 72 ...

Up to $25 or £5.....25 cents. $50 or £10 ... 50 5 .- Lasts of Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom may be consulted at
